CONNECTICUT STATE CAPITOL

THE STATE CAPITOL

In 1871 the General Assembly appointed a commission to contract for and fully complete a Capitol building in Hartford, and appropriated five hundred thousand dollars, authorizing the city of Hartford to appropriate and issue bonds to the extent of one million dollars for the same purpose.

The commission accepted the present site from the city of Hartford, and the plan of Richard Marshall Upjohn of New York, as a design for the building, which was built by James G. Batterson of Hartford.

In 1873 the plan was changed to a design for the present fireproof building, and five hundred thousand dollars additional appropriated by the State. A new commission was also appointed. In 1875 this was supplemented by a further and final appropriation of one million dollars and in that year Hartford became the Capital of the State.

The entire cost, including heating and ventilating apparatus, and such stationary as was placed at the time of erection, was $2,532,524.43, and the cost of the furniture was about one hundred thousand dollars more.

The General Assembly opened its first regular session in the building in January, 1879, but it was not fully completed until some months later.

The building at one time contained the State Library, part of the space used for such purpose however has since been remodeled and now contains the present Senate Chamber. The Supreme Court also held sessions here and the hall which was used for this purpose is now part of the offices of the Personnel Department.

The rooms used for offices and committees are in number about ninety-two and are numbered from one hundred onward, with the exception of the Senate Chamber, Representatives Hall and the room now used for the Judiciary Committee, formerly the Old Senate Chamber. The present Senate Chamber in addition to seating the Senate of thirty-five members, can comfortably seat approximately three hundred additional persons, while the House of Representatives, besides seating two hundred and sixty-seven members, can seat with the aid of its galleries about six hundred more.

The dimensions of the Capitol Building are as follows:

Extreme length, two hundred ninety-five feet, eight inches; width of central part, one hundred eighty-nine feet four inches; of wings, one hundred eleven feet eight inches; height from ground to top of roof, ninety-two feet eight inches; to top of crowning figure, two hundred fifty-seven feet two inches.

It is located upon a hill overlooking what was at one time the campus of Trinity College and it is within a short distance of the Union Depot and but a few blocks from the new Post Office. Its grounds can be approached by drives, from Asylum Ford, Trinity and Washington Streets or by way of Capitol Avenue.

Adjacent and making complete the picturesque setting of the State Capitol is Bushnell Park, this covers 41.27 acres. On the grounds of the Park near the east entrance is the statue of General Israel Putnam and statues of Horace Wells and a Memorial to Veterans of the Spanish War are located in that part of the Park beyond Trinity Street. Upon the terrace and to the north of the Capitol are two nine inch Dahlgren guns, which were used on the warship Hartford. Conspicuous from all directions looking to the Capitol from the north side is the Corning Fountain with Indian Figures supporting it and a memorial arch spanning Trinity Street. Throughout the Park trees are planted of different varieties and from spring to late fall make its surrounding unsurpassed by any Capitol grounds.

The exterior of the building is of marble and granite, the marble being quarried from East Canaan, Connecticut and the granite from Westerly, Rhode Island.

At the north side above the entrance appears in bas-relief figures, Colonial Life as follows: "Indian Attack upon a Fort," "Wadsworth Hiding the Charter," while in the center, is the Coat of Arms; also "Putnam Leaving His Plow," "John Holmes Sailing Past a Dutch Fort." Above these in order follow statues of the colonial leaders, John Haynes, Joseph Wadsworth, John Winthrop, Jr.,

Theophilus Eaton, John Mason and Roger Ludlow. In bronze medallion, upon one side of the entrance is the bust outline of General Joseph R. Hawley, whilst upon the other side is the bust outline of late Senator Orville H. Platt.

On the east front upon pedestals similarly arranged, are also statues of colonial leaders, Thomas Hooker, Roger Sherman, Jonathan Trumbull and John Davenport. Medallion heads upon the east front of the Capitol appear those of the State distinguished in arts and letters as follows: Joel Barlow, George Berkeley, Horace Bushnell, Noah Webster, John Trumbull, Jonathan Edwards and again in bas-relief; "Hooker's March to Hartford," "The Charter Oak," and "Davenport Preaching at New Haven."

On the south side of the building there appear in niches, the statues of Generals John Sedgwick and Alfred Terry, while on the west side of the building, statues in niches, appear Oliver Wolcott, David Humphreys, David Wooster and Oliver Ellsworth. On the grounds just off the south-east driveway are located bronze statues of Col. Thomas Knowlton and Governor Richard D. Hubbard, while at the entrance of this driveway is the "Petersburg Express," a mortar relic of the Civil War.

Within the building at the west end protected in glass cases are the various flags used by regiments in the Civil, Spanish and World Wars which were carried by military or naval divisions of Connecticut engaged therein. There are also bronze statues of Nathan Hale and William A. Buckingham, model of the statue appearing on the Capitol dome and the figure head which once adorned the prow of the Flagship Hartford. About the first floor are also relics of the Civil War, being a portion of a tree, taken from the battlefield of Chickamauga and a wheel of a cannon used by the 1st Conn. Lt. Bt. & Vols., in various battles in the South. In the south lobby is a revolving cannon taken from the Spanish warship Viscaya, and a camp bedstead used by Marquis de Lafayette.

The crowning feature of the Capitol is the winged bronze figure representing the Genius of Connecticut, by Randolph Rogers, Rome, 1877 and cast by Ferd v. Miller & Sohne, Munchen, 1878. It measures seventeen feet to the tip of its wings, weighs six thousand six hundred pounds, and cost $14,000. The plaster cast in the north corridor of the Capitol is the same as the one from which the bronze was cast.

The twelve marble statues standing upon the twelve angles of the dome at the base of the cone represent Agriculture, Commerce, Education, Music, Science and Force. There are two of each. The models from which these statues were cut were modeled by J. Q. A. Ward of New York and are now standing on the copings of the two main stairways leading to the balcony of the House of Representatives. The statues are twice the size of the models.

On the first floor are the offices of the Comptroller, Treasurer and Bureau of School Fund, Commissioner of Finance, State Auditors, and the Superintendent of the Capitol.

On the second floor are the offices of the Governor, the Secretary of State, Legislative Council, and Commissioner of the Revision of the Statutes. The Hall of the House and rooms generally used for hearings of Judiciary and Appropriations Committees.

On the third floor are the offices of the Attorney-General, Personnel Director, Budget Director, and Purchasing Director.

On the fourth floor are the offices of the Liquor Commission, Pharmacy Commission and Committee rooms in addition to the room generally used by the Judiciary Committee and Appropriations Committee on the second floor.

On the fifth floor are the office of the Analytical Department (Comptrollers), the Capitol Restaurant, The Photostat and Stock Room (Secretary of State), and various offices allotted to the W.P.A. working of state projects.

PREFACE

Believing that the best service that can be rendered lies in the perfecting of information which has proven of value in previous issues of the Connecticut State Register and Manual, it has been the endeavor of the Secretary to chronicle in as condensed a form as possible, the progress of the State and its present governmental authorities, including those created by the reorganization of the state departments, and adding only such new material as may prove valuable for reference purposes.

A special article by His Excellency, Governor Wilbur L. Cross, should prove of interest to all citizens of the State.

The Secretary has endeavored to make this issue a most complete and authoritative reference and wishes to thank all those who so generously aided in its compilation.

C. JOHN SATTI,

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

In Congress, July 4, 1776

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION of the THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed will dictate, that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused to assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment of any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond the seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies.

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrection amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connexions and correspondence. They, too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and to consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace, friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by the authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

WE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE. I.

Section: 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section. 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty-five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons, The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at Least one Representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

Section. 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the Second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.

No person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote unless they be equally divided.

The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

Section. 4. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such meetings shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different Day.

Section. 5. Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behavior, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

Section. 6. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.

Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him,

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States.

THE CONNECTICUT BUILDING AT THE EASTERN STATES EXPOSITION

By Governor Wilbur L. Cross

The Eastern States Exposition at Springfield, Massachusetts, organized in 1916, is recognized as one of the leading institutions devoted to agricultural, industrial, and educational advancement. Its exhibits in the early autumn each year have become increasingly popular with the people of New England and also with the people of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware. The Exposition grounds comprise a tract of 175 acres with 13 brick, steel, and concrete buildings and 39 other permanent units devoted to housing various exhibits. In addition to the general exhibition structures, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Massachusetts have erected state buildings for the display of their natural, industrial, agricultural, and recreational resources.

The State of Connecticut would have had a building at the Eastern States Exposition some years ago except for a legislative fluke. Then came the depression and even though there was strong support for such a building, it was not felt advisable to urge the necessary appropriation. The 1937 General Assembly, however, passed an Act authorizing appointment by the Governor of a Board of Trustees for a Connecticut building at Springfield and appropriating $35,000 towards its construction on the condition that there should be raised a subscription of private funds of at least $25,000 by December 31, 1937.

In August, 1937, I appointed the following Trustees: Charles B. Cook of Hartford, Edwin Pugsley of New Haven, John Wadhams of Torrington, and George Warncke of Wilton. The Commissioner of Agriculture, Olcott F. King, an ex-officio member of the Board, acts as Chairman. With the assistance of the Trustees there has been raised $38,950 by generous contributions of industrialists, agricultural groups, and public-spirited individuals, thus making available for the building a total fund of $73,950.

It is anticipated that the Connecticut building at the Eastern States Exposition, to be modeled after the Old State House at Hartford, may be ready for exhibition purposes in September, 1938.

THE COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS

The Connecticut Commission on Intergovernmental Cooperation, as its name implies, has been created "to carry forward the participation of this state as a member of the Council of State Governments; to advance cooperation between this state and other units of government. . . . In short, to do all such acts as will, in the opinion of said Commission, enable this state to do its part or more than its part, in forming a nearly more perfect union among the governments in the United States and in developing the Council of State Governments for that purpose." To carry out these purposes it is cooperating with the Commissions on Interstate Cooperation of both the Middle Atlantic and the New England States on problems of crime control, highway safety, milk control, water resources, social security, liquor control and labor legislation.

The Council of State Governments is a part of the governmental structure of the United States. It is a joint agency created by thirty-six state governments. By legislative action, each of these states has established a Commission on Interstate Cooperation "to perfect the participation of the state as a member of the Council of State Governments." The Council has no individual members, each of the members being a state government.

The associations contribute to the financial support of the Council who is the official research agency and clearing house for each of these associations.

COMMISSION ON FORESTS AND WILD LIFE.

Gen. Stat., Sec. 2176.
State Office Building, Room 443.

The State Park and Forest Commission and the State Board of Fisheries and Game.

Chester W. Martin, Acting Field Agent, Old Lyme.

POLICE

DEPARTMENT OF STATE POLICE

(Established 1903)

The Connecticut State Police Department is primarily interested in furnishing organized and trained police service to such communities as do not maintain full-time police departments of their own. Any State Policeman has, in every part of the state, the same authority regarding criminal matters as sheriffs, constables, and policemen in their own respective jurisdictions.

The duties of the force are many and varied, embracing a number of activities which, ordinarily, would not be considered as police work. Highway patrols, with enforcement of the Motor Vehicle Laws, are, perhaps, the most familiar to the general public. Among the duties placed upon the department, by statute, may be mentioned the following: Issuance of amusement park licenses; investigation of the origin of fires and the abatement of fire hazards; approval of the make and type of oil burners for heating purposes; inspection and regulation of motion picture theatres, with the issuance of licenses for the theatres and for the managers and projectionists; issuance of licenses for the storage of motion picture films; enforcement of the laws relating to weights and measures; issuance of licenses for outdoor advertising; issuance of permits for the manufacture, storage and transportation of explosives; issuance of licenses for jewelry auctions; issuance of state permits for carrying a revolver or pistol; issuance of permits to engage in electrical work; issuance of permits for the use of chemicals in removing soot from chimneys and flues; and control over fuel in case of an emergency or shortage.

CONNECTICUT STATE SEAL

THE STATE SEAL

A complete history of the seal as then used, was published in the Register and Manuel of 1889.

The first Colonial seal seems to have been suggested by General Fenwick of that time. This seal succeeded the British seal. It was slightly oval with a beaded border and smaller in size than the reproduction given here of the present seal. It was described as follows:

"This seal represents a vineyard of fifteen vines, supported and bearing fruit." Above the vines, a hand issued from the clouds at the left of the observer, holding a label with the motto: "Sustinet qui transtulit."

After the Colony received its charter, the first General Assembly thereafter on October, 1662, directed its continuance as the State Seal.

When the government of the Colony was taken over by Sir Edmund Andros, this seal was destroyed. On October 25, 1711, the General Assembly directed that a new seal be adopted. This seal was still oval in shape and considerably larger than the other. Instead of fifteen vines, there were but three, and there was a hand midway to the left of the observer and pointed to them.

The immediate predecessor to the present seal was adopted in 1784 and had four clusters of grapes on the upper two vines and five on the lower. The hand was omitted and the scroll and motto appeared beneath the clusters of grapes as in the present seal. This design was made in two seals, one for impressing documents and another for wax.

One of these seals, or that used for impressing documents, became damaged. The other, or that used for impressing wax, was given to Yale University, while the former rests in the corner-stone of the State Library.

The General Assembly of 1931, by Chapter 54, described the Great Seal, and the Secretary of State has had an official drawing made upon parchment, which may be seen in his office.

CONNECTICUT STATE FLAG

THE STATE FLAG

The first proposal for legislation adopting a State Flag was introduced to the General Assembly of 1895. At this time Adjutant General Charles P. Graham made a very interesting historical report of the use of a State Flag. In it he states that the Arms of State are as follows: Argent three vines supported and fruited. Proper, meaning a white or silver field, bearing upon it three grape vines, depicted in natural colors as growing and bearing fruit.

The above he states to have been the Arms of the Colony since 1865. He also states that immediately after the Battle of Lexington the Connecticut troops had standards bearing the Colyne Arms with the motto, "Qui Transtulit Sustinet."

The regimental colors of the many regiments of Connecticut Volunteers in the Civil War had the National shield impaled with the shield of Connecticut, signifying Connecticut troops in the service of the United States.

The General Assembly of 1897 provided the following to be the official description of the State Flag:

"The following-described flag is the official flag of the state. The dimensions of the flag shall be five feet and six inches in length; four feet and four inches in width. The flag shall be of azure blue silk, charged with a shield of rococo design of argent white silk, having embroidered in the center three grape vines, supported and bearing fruit in natural colors. The bordure to the shield shall be embroidered in two colors, gold and silver. Below the shield shall be a white streamer, cleft at each end, bordered by gold and browns in fine lines, and upon the streamer shall be embroidered in dark blue letters the motto 'Qui Transtulit Sustinet'; the whole design being the Arms of the State."

(Revised Statutes of 1930, Section 2238.)

CHARTER OAK TREE IN WHICH CONNECTICUT'S CHARTER WAS HIDDEN IN 1687.

THE CHARTER OAK

"Only God can make a tree"

In our busy lives, let us cherish the memory of the Charter Oak—true to its trust and unto the end, an oak.

The famous old Charter Oak fell with a tremendous crash during the great storm at quarter before one o'clock on the morning of August 21, 1856. This famous monarch of the forest whose history is so intimately entwined in that of Connecticut, was supposed to be upwards of a thousand years of age.

Before Governor Wyllys came to America, he sent his steward forward to prepare a place for his residence. As he was cutting away the trees upon the hillside of the beautiful "Wyllys place" a deputation of Indians came to him and requested that he would spare this old hollow oak. They declared that it had been the "guide of their ancestors for centuries".

On the 31st of October, 1687, Sir Edmond Andross, attended by members of his Council, and a bodyguard of sixty soldiers, entered Hartford to take by force the Charter granted to the Colony by Charles the Second in 1662. By stratagem, however, the Charter was removed from the assembly room and concealed by Captain Joseph Wadsworth, a patriot of those times, in the hollow of the Wyllys Oak, afterwards known as "The Charter Oak".

In 1689, King James abdicated, and on the 9th of May that year Governor Treat and his associate officers resumed the government of Connecticut under the Charter, which had been preserved in the Old Hollow Oak.

CONNECTICUT TOWNS IN THE ORDER OF THEIR ESTABLISHMENTS; WITH THE ORIGIN OF THEIR NAMES

Until 1700 almost the only official action of the colonial government (General Court) in regard to town organization, was to authorize the town name, usually chosen by its leading man, from his home in England. In October, 1700, we find implied or quasi incorporation, such as exists to this day in the records. "This assembly doth grant to the inhabitants of the town of Lebanon all such immunities, privileges and powers, as generally other townes within this Colonie have and doe enjoy." The authoritative legal definition of a town in England, contemporary with the earliest Connecticut settlements is given in the first edition of Coke's Commentaries upon Littleton, published 1628: "It can not be a town in law, unless it hath, or in past time hath had, a church, and celebration of Divine services, sacraments and burials." The churches, which moved bodily, with their pastors, from Massachusetts to Connecticut, proceeded to exercise the secular powers which we regard as those of the town, but the English township is known by its ecclesiastical name of parish. Several of our towns were first set off as parishes from great town-tracts; yet the town in Connecticut colony essentially separated church and state in government, in that it never restricted political suffrage to church members. As to dates, the official colonial records are followed, as soon as they begin, 1636.

CONNECTICUT FROM 1756 TO 1930.

The census of 1774 embraces as a part of Litchfield County "Westmoreland, 1,922," presumably the Pennsylvania tract at that time claimed by Connecticut. "Fair Haven, 1,317," is included in the figures for 1850. "Statistics of towns" and "Connecticut Towns in the order of their establishment: Origin of Names," in this volume show the origin of the later towns, and explain many apparent losses in population of the older ones.

MOUNTAIN LAUREL — Kalmia latifolia
STATE FLOWER OF CONNECTICUT

THE STATE FLOWER

In the Public Acts of 1907 is found this terse statement:

"The Mountain Laurel, Kalmia latifolia, is made, constituted and declared to be the state flower of the State of Connecticut."

There are several varieties of the kalmia, many of which are found in distant parts of the earth. The Kalmia latifolia adopted by the Legislature as the State Flower of Connecticut is known commonly as the Mountain Laurel. It is also known under the names of American Laurel, Spoonwood, and Calico Bush.

It is an evergreen shrub belonging to the Heath family and frequently attains a height of more than ten feet.

This particular variety of the kalmia has a wide habitat, abounding more or less from Canada to Florida and far inland, especially among the open spaces of hills and mountains.

For its beauty of flower and leaf it is highly prized and carefully cultivated to a considerable extent in England.

Its leaves are oblong and pointed and are of a glossy appearance and leathery texture and are equally attractive summer or winter.

The flowers, which are arranged in terminal clusters, are white or pink, and in New England are usually both in some stages of their development. They are waxy in appearance and almost transparent at times and are usually seen at their maximum beauty from about the middle of June until the first of July, according to location and climatic conditions.

UNITED STATES POSTAL REGULATIONS

First Class (Limit 70 pounds):

Letters and written and sealed matter, 3 cents for each ounce, except when addressed for local delivery: Local letters, 2 cents an ounce at letter carrier offices; and 1 cent an ounce at all other offices unless collected or delivered by rural or star-route carriers, in which case the rate is 2 cents an ounce.

Letters in business reply envelopes—3 cents an ounce or fraction of an ounce, plus 1 cent additional for each letter. Local business reply envelopes, 2 cents an ounce or fraction, plus 1 cent additional for each letter.

Business reply cards, 1 cent each, plus 1 cent additional for each card anywhere in the United States.

Air Mail—6 cents for each ounce or fraction of an ounce.

No change in the rate on postal cards, private mailing or post cards, nor in letters for local delivery at offices not having letter-carrier service.

RATES OF POSTAGE ON DOMESTIC MATTER.

1. First Class.—Letters and all other written matter whether sealed or unsealed, and all the matter, sealed, tied or fastened in any manner so that it cannot be easily examined, three cents an ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards, one cent each. The left third of the address side of postal cards may be utilized for writing or printing. Post cards issued by private enterprise are under special regulations of the department, but in general have the same privileges, and are now 1 cent each. Local drop letters 2 cents an ounce except at offices where there is no carrier delivery service when that rate is 1 cent an ounce. Typewriting and carbon and letter press copies thereof are equivalent of handwriting and are classed as such in all cases. The rate of postage for air mail service is 6 cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

2. Second Class.—Newspapers and periodical publications when sent by publishers or news agents, the zone rates apply. Newspapers and periodical publications sent by persons other than the publishers and news agents, one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, or the fourth class rate, whichever is the lower.

3. Third Class.—Third class matter now comprises books weighing 8 ounces or less, and miscellaneous printed matter weighing 8 ounces or less. All other matter now comes under "parcel post" rates and conditions weighing over eight ounces.

Air Mail Postage Rates.—Domestic rates 6 cents per ounce or fraction of an ounce. Foreign rates, consult your Postmaster.

NAME AND ADDRESS OF SENDER.

Whenever the interest or convenience of the sender of mail matter does not forbid it he should print or write on it his name and address in the upper left-hand corner of the letter or package, obligatory in case of parcel post matter. This will secure a notice to the sender in case of non-delivery, avoiding the delay involved in sending it to the dead-letter office, and, in case of a letter, the necessary invasion of its privacy.

The reason why so many articles of dead mail matter are accumulated and sold by the department every year is that they have nothing on them to indicate who mailed them.

It is very desirable to the department to have the senders of matter endorse upon it their names and addresses.

There is also an exception with respect to sealing in the case of C.O.D. 8-ounce merchandise packages for Mexico, which may be sealed.)

Small Packets.—Three cents for each 2 ounces, with a minimum charge of 10 cents per packet. Limit of weight: 2 pounds, 3 ounces. Dimensions: Same as for letters. It is likewise permissible to enclose in small packets an open invoice reduced to its essential terms. Every small packet must be clearly marked on the wrapper by the sender with the words "small packet."

Classification.—It is recommended that mailers endorse the envelope or wrapper of all articles sent at the reduced rate to indicate the classification, such as "commercial papers", "printed matter", etc.

Special-delivery (expres) service is now in force with the following foreign countries:

Argentina
Australia

An article intended for special ("expres") delivery in any of the countries mentioned above must be prepaid 20 cents, in addition to the regular postage, by United States special-delivery or other stamps affixed to the cover. There should also be affixed one of the "expres" labels (Form 2977) or the cover must be marked boldly in red ink "Expres," directly below but never on the stamps. In some countries the service is limited to certain cities, lists of which appear under the country items in the "International Postal Service" section, Official Postal Guide. In Canada and Newfoundland the special-delivery service applies only to letters (or articles prepaid at the letter rate). In the other countries of the above list, the "expres" feature is applicable to ordinary and registered Postal Union Articles (letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed matter, samples and small packets), but not to parcel-post packages.

NOTE: Reduced bulk mailing rates under Section 562 of the Postal Laws and Regulations are no longer applicable to matter for foreign countries.

WHEN SERVICE EXISTS.

No provision is made for the transmission, in the mails proper, exchanged between the United States and foreign countries of articles of miscellaneous merchandise, unless they are sent as bona fide trade samples which comply with the prescribed conditions. But as the postal conventions do not define the term "letter," it is held that a package upon which the postage has been paid at the letter rate in full was intended by the sender to be sent as a letter; and when it does not contain prohibited articles, is required to be considered and treated as a letter. Consequently, unsealed packages addressed to foreign countries which are fully prepaid at the rate of postage applicable to letters are allowed to be forwarded to their destination, even though they contain articles of miscellaneous merchandise, provided the countries of destination permit the importation of articles liable to customs duty in the form of letters or in packages prepaid at the letter rate of postage.

PARCEL POST.

Parcel post packages may be sent to most foreign countries, and the limits of weight range from 11 to 50 pounds. Consult your Postmaster for rates, weight limits, and conditions applicable to parcel post packages addressed for delivery abroad.

Articles other than letters in their usual and ordinary form are excluded from the mails unless they are so wrapped that their contents can be easily examined by postmasters and customs officers. Any articles enclosed in an envelope, as the word "envelope" is generally used, without regard to its size, is considered to be "in the usual and ordinary form" of a letter. But unsealed packages may contain, in sealed receptacles, articles which cannot be safely transmitted in unsealed receptacles; provided that the contents of the closed receptacles are plainly visible or are precisely stated on the covers of the closed receptacles and that the package is so wrapped that the outer cover can be easily opened.

All mail matter passing between the United States and Puerto Rico, Guam, the Philippines and Hawaii, or between these island possessions of the United States, shall be subject to the United States domestic classifications, conditions and rates of postage. (See pages 549 and 550.)

UNMAILABLE MATTER.

Obscene books, letters, papers, pictures, and postal cards; lottery circulars and letters; gunpowder, and other explosives; live or dead (not dried) reptiles, animals, and insects (except bees); poisons; and any articles liable to injure the mails or the persons of those handling them.

WEIGHING PACKAGES.

Have all packages weighed at the post office. Postage must be prepaid in full or the packages will not be dispatched.

REFORWARDING.

Letters will be forwarded from one post office to another upon the written request of the person addressed without additional charge for postage, but packages of third and fourth class matter cannot be forwarded or returned without a new payment of postage, unless postage is guaranteed, which must be stated on upper left-hand corner of wrapper or envelope.

THE SPECIAL DELIVERY SYSTEM

Mailable matter intended for special delivery may be mailed at, and will be delivered from, any post office in the United States.

Accordingly, every article of mailable matter to which is affixed a special delivery stamp of required denomination, or other stamps of equal amount with the words "special delivery" above or under them, in addition to the postage required by law, will, upon its arrival by mail, have immediate delivery by a special messenger within one mile of any post office or delivery station or branch of such office and within the city or village delivery limits of offices having delivery service where such limits extend in excess of one mile from the post office, station or branch, and by rural carrier to patrons, of rural service who reside more than one mile from the post office, station or branch, but within one-half mile of the rural route. Special delivery is made at city letter carrier post offices from 7 a. m. to 11 p. m. and at all other post offices from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m., and after the arrival of the last mail, provided this is not later than 9 p. m.

This provision also applies to drop letters and other mailable matter deposited for local delivery, and to registered letters, when bearing special delivery stamps in addition to the full postage and the proper registry fee.

Special delivery stamps are sold at all post offices, and cannot be used for any other purpose than to secure immediate delivery.

MONEY ORDERS.

The money order system is intended to promote public convenience and to secure safety through the mails of small sums of money. The maximum amount of a single order is $100.

A person applying for a money order will be required to state the particulars upon a form of application which will be furnished by the postmaster.

Parties procuring money orders should examine them to see that they are properly filled out and stamped. This caution is necessary to avoid difficulties in the way of payment.

A money order may be endorsed once, but not oftener. The person who presents a money order for payment must be identified if unknown to the postmaster.

A money order may be repaid at the office of issue within one year, provided it bears not more than one endorsement. The fee will not be refunded. When a money order has been lost by either remitter, payee, or endorsee, a duplicate thereof will be issued by the department, free of charge, to the owner of the original upon his making application (stating the circumstances of the loss).

Money orders are paid at any money order office exclusive of Alaska within 30 days after issue, but if paid at an office other than the one on which drawn a fee equal to that charged for its issue will be exacted.

The fees or charges for domestic money orders will be as follows:

THE REGISTRY SYSTEM.

DOMESTIC.

The registry system is intended to accord valuable mail matter the greatest possible security.

Postmasters, before receiving a letter for registration, must require the sender to have it securely sealed in every part with mucilage or glue; to have it fully and legibly addressed; to have it bear name and address of sender; and to have affixed the necessary stamps to fully prepay postage, registry fee, and required surcharge.

First, second, and third-class mail may be registered. Fourth-class matter may also be registered if it is sealed and first-class rate of postage is paid thereon. All first-class mail intended for registration must be securely sealed in every part. Second and third-class matter valued in excess of $100, upon which a registry fee in excess of 30 cents is paid, must be sealed and first-class postage paid thereon.

Mail for dispatch via airplane service is accepted for registration, upon prepayment, by postage stamps affixed, of the required registration fee and surcharge if any, in addition to the airplane postage.

Two or more letters or parcels addressed to, or intended for, the same person cannot be tied or otherwise fastened together and registered as one.

The registry fees, which are in addition to the regular postage and surcharge if any, and the limits of indemnity therefor are as follows:

Limit of Indemnity	Fee
Not over $5 . . . . .	15 cents
Over $5 and not exceeding $25 . . . . .	18 cents
Over $25 and not exceeding $50 . . . . .	20 cents

Over $75 and not exceeding $100 . . . . .	30 cents

Over $300 and not exceeding $400 . . . . .	60 cents
Over $400 and not exceeding $500 . . . . .	70 cents

Over $800 and not exceeding $900 . . . . .	95 cents
Over $900 and not exceeding $1,000 . . . . .	$1.00

Mail matter without intrinsic value for which no indemnity is provided may be registered at the minimum fee of 15 cents.

A registry surcharge is collectible in addition to the registry fee when the value of a registered article (or the known or estimated cost of duplication in case of non-negotiable securities) exceeds the limit of indemnity prescribed for the registry fee paid, and the sender is required to declare the value, or the known or estimated cost of duplication in case of non-negotiable securities. The local post office should be consulted for full particulars.

Return receipts for registered mail: Fee, if requested at time of mailing, 3 cents; after mailing, 5 cents; at time of mailing to show address of delivery, 23 cents.

An additional charge of 10 cents is made when registered mail is restricted in delivery to addressee only, or to the addressee or order.

Fees—The Insurance fees range from 5 cents to 55 cents, providing for indemnity, in the event of loss, rifling, or damage. The limit of indemnity in most cases is $100.00 (Consult postmaster.) However, the insurance fees on parcels exchanged between Continental United States (not including Alaska) and Great Britain and Northern Ireland range from 20 cents to $1.50, providing for indemnity, in the event of loss, rifling, or damage, up to $2,000. Also, the maximum indemnity payable for the loss, rifling, or damage of insured parcels addressed to Canada is $200; to Portuguese West Africa $9.65; to Ecuador $50, and to Portugal (including Madeira and the Azores) $50, except that in case of Portugal the indemnity payable is restricted to cases of loss (wrapper and contents) only.

Return receipts for insured parcels addressed to foreign countries except Canada will be furnished only upon request therefor by the sender and upon payment of a fee of 5 cents for each receipt requested at time of mailing and 10 cents if requested after mailing.

Canada and Newfoundland—Mailable merchandise and printed matter designated as third and fourth-class matter and Postal Union "prints" addressed to Canada or Newfoundland may be insured for the same fees and under the same conditions so far as applicable, including payment of indemnity, as apply to domestic mail of these classes. Third-class or "printed matter" may be registered, if desired, but fourth-class parcels of general merchandise may be registered only when sealed and postage is paid at letter rate.

Senders' return receipts are not obtained for insured parcels addressed to Canada, but may be obtained for insured parcels addressed to Newfoundland by payment of a fee of 5 cents, in addition to postage and insurance fee, when requested at the time of mailing; when requested subsequent to the time of mailing, a charge of 10 cents is made.

The following articles and those of similar character shall not be accepted for transmission as insured mail for or from Canada or Newfoundland, but when mailable, may be sent as registered matter provided they are sealed and the letter rate of postage is paid: Precious stones, mounted or unmounted; all articles commonly known as jewelry used for personal adornment, such as, rings, brooches, tie pins, chains, cuff links, dress sets, fobs, bracelets, rosary beads, locketts, necklaces, etc.; all articles of gold or other precious metals for personal use, such as, cigarette holders, cigarette cases, vanity cases, cardcases, gold and silver pencils, lorgnettes, mesh bags, watches, etc.; gold scrap, jeweler's fillings, fountain pens, money packets (which are construed as including bank notes, coin, including coins not current, bullion, gold dust, bonds, and coupons payable to bearer, stocks and other securities negotiable by bearer).

International Ordinary (Parcel Post) Mail—Limited indemnity may be paid in the actual amount of the loss, rifling, or damage to ordinary parcel post packages exchanged with certain countries. (Consult postmaster.)

A charge of 5 cents shall be made for an inquiry or complaint concerning any ordinary article (parcel-post package or Postal Union article) addressed for delivery in a foreign country, unless the sender is able to show, as prescribed, prima facie loss or other irregularity through fault of the Postal Service. (Consult Postmaster.)

Representatives in Congress from Connecticut Since 1789

Previous to 1837 the Representatives from this State were elected by the people at large. The number at first, under the Constitution, was five and by later apportionments was changed in 1793 to seven, in 1823 to six, and in 1843 to four. From 1837 to 1843 they were elected one from each of the six districts into which the State was divided by an Act of the General Assembly; from 1843 to 1911 they were elected, one from each of the four districts established by the General Assembly of 1842, as follows: District number one, consisting of the counties of Hartford and Tolland; district number two, the counties of New Haven and Middlesex; district number three, the counties of New London and Windham; district number four, the counties of Fairfield and Litchfield. A fifth representative, to which the State is entitled under the census of 1900, was chosen at large. At the session of 1911 the State was divided into five districts as follows: District No. 1, County of Hartford; District No. 2, Counties of Tolland, Windham, New London and Middlesex; District No. 3, Towns of Cheshire, Meriden, Wallingford, Bethany, Hamden, North Haven, North Branford, Guilford, Madison, Woodbridge, Orange, West Haven, Milford, New Haven, East Haven and Branford in County of New Haven; District No. 4, County of Fairfield; District No. 5, County of Litchfield and the Towns of Southbury, Middlebury, Waterbury, Wolcott, Oxford, Naugatuck, Prospect, Beacon Falls, Seymour, Ansonia, and Derby in the County of New Haven. At the session of 1921, a law was passed creating the office of congressman-at-large to be in effect if the federal apportionment gave Connecticut six congressmen.

GOVERNORS OF CONNECTICUT

The supreme executive power of the State is vested by the Constitution in the Governor. He has the power to administer oaths, sign writs, issue processes, and to see that the laws of the State are faithfully executed. In case of emergency he may convene the General Assembly in special session. He is commander-in-chief of the militia of the State, has power to grant reprieves in all cases except impeachment, and has jurisdiction in the matter of requisitions from other states for criminals. He has power to veto any bills passed by the General Assembly, but his veto may be overridden by a majority vote in both Houses upon reconsideration. Any bill which is neither signed nor vetoed by him within five days after being presented to him (Sundays excepted) during the session of the General Assembly, becomes a law, in like manner as if signed by him. After adjournment of the General Assembly he is allowed fifteen days in which to act. The Governor must also present a biennial budget for the State early in the session of each General Assembly and has control over the quarterly allotments granted after the budget has been acted on by the General Assembly. He must from time to time give to the General Assembly information concerning the State and recommend such measures as he deems expedient. He may adjourn the General Assembly in case of disagreement between the two Houses to such time as he thinks proper, but not beyond the day of the next stated session. He nominates to the General Assembly the judges of the Supreme, Superior, and Common Pleas Courts and appoints, with the consent of the Senate or the General Assembly, the Commissioner of Aeronautics, the Banking Commissioner, the Commissioner of Finance and Control, Highway Commissioner, Insurance Commissioner, Commissioner of Labor and Factory Inspection, a Milk Administrator, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, Public Utilities Commissioners, State Water Commissioners, Tax Commissioner, Statute Revision Commissioner, and Commissioner of Welfare. He appoints directly a Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Athletics, Dairy and Food Commissioner, Commissioner of Domestic Animals, Commissioners of Fisheries and Game, Health Commissioner, Liquor Control Commissioners, Police Commissioner, and various other minor boards and commissions. He is ex-officio a member of the Board of Control of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station, the State Board of Education, the Board of Education of the Blind, the Board of Pardons, the State Library Committee, the Board of Trustees of the Connecticut State Hospital, and the Corporation of Yale University.

The Governor presided over the General Assembly before it was divided into two Houses in 1698; from that date until the adoption of the Constitution of 1818 he presided in the council or upper house, with a casting vote but no veto power. At the present time the Lieutenant-Governor presides over the Senate.

The title of His Excellency was given to the Governor by an act passed in May, 1777.

The Governor holds office for two years and receives an annual salary of $5,000.

DEPUTY OR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNORS

Before the Constitution of 1818 the Deputy-Governor presided in council, or the upper house of the General Assembly, in the absence of the Governor, but when the Governor was present the Deputy-Governor had a voice in council. Until 1818 he could exercise the office of a justice of the peace throughout the State, and he could sign writs until 1879.

The Lieutenant-Governor is President of the Senate, has a casting vote therein, and the right to debate when it is in Committee of the Whole. In case of the death, resignation, refusal to serve, inability to perform the powers and duties of his office, impeachment, removal from office or absence from the State of the Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor is required by the Constitution "to perform the duties of the Governor, until another be chosen at the next periodical election for Governor and be duly qualified, or until the disability be removed, or until the Governor impeached or absent, shall be acquitted or return." He is ex-officio, a member of the Corporation of Yale University, the State Board of Education and the Board of Visitors to the Sheffield Scientific School.

The title of His Honor was conferred upon the Lieutenant-Governor at the revision of the Statutes in 1784.

He is elected for two years and receives an annual salary of $1,500.

COMPTROLLERS

The office of Comptroller was created in 1786, by the General Assembly by whom the appointment was made until 1838, and since then, by the Constitutional Amendment of 1836, he has been elected by the people, in like manner as other State officers.

Before the institution of this office, orders on the Treasurer might be drawn by the Governor, or assistants; and by justices of the peace for sums under forty shillings. The committee of the Pay-Table, which this office superseded, was originally established to liquidate and adjust accounts of expenses relating to the War of the Revolution.

The Comptroller is required to adjust and settle all public accounts and demands, except grants and orders of the General Assembly, and to prescribe the mode of keeping and rendering all public accounts. It is his duty to state, from time to time, the amount of debts and credits of the State, to examine into the collection of taxes, to see that all officers engaged in their assessment or collection faithfully perform their duty, and to report to the General Assembly those who are unfaithful; to present all claims in favor of the State against estates of insolvent and deceased persons, and bring suits for the recovery of the money and property of the State.

He pre-audits all obligations against the state whether it be purchase order, contract or otherwise. Any purchase order or contract is void unless it carries his approval and certificate that it is recorded and charged against the applicable specific appropriation and that there are sufficient unencumbered funds. He transmits such certified purchase order to the vender named therein.

He procures the State printing to be done. He is required to submit to the General Assembly, at the opening of each regular session and oftener, if required, an abstract of the receipts and expenditures of the public funds for the two years ending the 30th of June preceding, and plans and estimates relating to the public expenditures, revenues and funds.

He is ex-officio, one of the Auditors of the Treasurer's accounts, and a member of the Board of Canvassers, and Banking Commission.

He is elected for two years and receives an annual salary of $2,500.

ATTORNEYS-GENERAL

The office of Attorney-General was created by the General Assembly of 1897. The incumbent is elected by the people, in the same manner as the other State officers and must be an attorney-at-law of at least ten years active practice at the bar of this State.

His duties include a general supervision over all legal matters in which the State is an interested party, except those over which prosecuting officers have direction. He is required to appear for the State, the several elective State officers, the State boards, commissions, agents, etc., and institutions, in all suits and other civil proceedings, excepting upon criminal recognizances and bail bonds, in which the State is a party or is interested, or in which the official acts and doings of said officers are called in question in any court or other tribunal. He is called upon to give his opinion upon questions of law submitted to him by either branch of the General Assembly, to appear before legislative committees, when measures affecting the State treasury are pending, and take such action as he may deem to be for the best interests of the State, and act as general counsel for State officials in matter pertaining to their official duties.

He is chosen for a term of four years and receives an annual salary of $10,000.

CHIEF JUSTICES

The highest court in Connecticut was the General Assembly, until 1784, when it relinquished its function as an appellate tribunal to the upper house, which, when sitting for these purposes, was designated as the Supreme Court of Errors. The presiding officer or Chief Judge was at first the Deputy Governor, and later the Governor. In 1807 the membership of this court was completely changed by substituting, under an Act of the preceding year, the Judges of the Superior Court the Chief Judge of which became the presiding officer. The customary appellation was for some years, Chief Judge, but in the Constitution of 1818 the term Chief Justice was employed, and confirmed a practice already established in that respect.
